Andy Landry, III Member

Andy Landry is a civil trial lawyer with extensive experience in litigation across Texas and other states. His practice involves products liability, toxic tort, wrongful death, property damage, premise liability, employment, food contamination, and complex commercial litigation. He is well equipped to handle a very diverse trial caseload. His experience encompasses all aspects of litigation, including representing both plaintiffs and defendants in jury trials, bench trials, injunction proceedings, alternative dispute resolution and appellate matters. He often serves his clients by providing preventative litigation strategies, crisis management and public relations expertise. Although he is qualified to handle a broad range of disputes, he has developed a specialty in representing chemical and paint manufacturers as well as premise owners in serious injury cases. He has successfully represented clients ranging from individuals and small companies to the largest multi-national corporations. Mr. Landry brings a cost-effective approach to protecting and serving his clients through the use of advanced litigation support technology and contacts. Mr. Landry is licensed to practice in the State of Texas and has been admitted to practice in the U.S. District Court, Southern District of Texas, U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Texas, U.S. District Court, Western District of Texas and U.S. District Court, Northern District of Texas.
