

LOOPER REED

LOOPER REED & MCGRAW P.C.

International Law

While the new world economy creates exciting business opportunities, it also makes the need for experienced and innovative counsel more critical. At Looper Reed & McGraw, we help our clients identify new global markets, structure deals, protect their intellectual and financial capital, obtain necessary governmental support, and resolve disputes.

Looper Reed & McGraw's International section represents leading U.S. companies in their most sophisticated international transactions. The Firm advises the appropriate jurisdiction and structure for optimizing operations and minimizing taxes.

With substantial experience in multinational joint ventures and multi-jurisdictional cross border transactions and an extensive knowledge of our clients' objectives in emerging markets, we serve them in areas of energy, finance, investment, litigation, sanctions regulation and taxation.

Looper Reed & McGraw attorneys have represented clients in numerous foreign jurisdictions, including across Asia, Europe, South America and the South Pacific. The Firm has lawyers licensed in several states in the United States. Two of our lawyers are also licensed Solicitors in the United Kingdom, and one attorney is licensed and has practiced law in Brazil.

For non-U.S. entities wishing to do business in the U.S., Looper Reed & McGraw can provide advice and counsel on variety of legal issues including entity formation and qualification as well as ongoing assistance in dealing with government regulators, business partners, suppliers, and customers. Our securities and finance lawyers handle equity and investment banking transactions for non-U.S. clients and for U.S. companies co-listing in other exchanges.

Clients will also benefit from the proficiency of nearly 100 Looper Reed & McGraw attorneys who provide a full range of legal services covering Energy/Oil & Gas, Construction, Corporate, Health Care, Intellectual Property, Employment, Litigation, Real Estate, Tax, Family Law, and Trusts & Estates.
